

John A. Leitner

President/CEO
W.J. Brynes & Co.

John A. Leitner is an effective spokesman, lecturer and educator on international trade issues in the United States and overseas. He is author of training videos, textbooks, and editorials. He has Chaired the Transport Documents Committee, providing input in developing the internationally accepted rules for documentary credits, and the Trade Facilitation Committee, a council to coordinate and reconcile issues among local, state and federal agencies, ports and private sector firms involved with international commerce. Mr. Leitner serves on the Board of Directors, Pacific Coast Council of Customs Brokers & Forwarders Associations, Marine Exchange of the Northern California, Customs Brokers & Forwarders Association of Northern California. Mr. Leitner is licensed by U.S. Customs Service and in 1993 received the coveted "Commissioner's Award". In 1978 he was appointed by the Secretary of Commerce to the Export Council, a position he still holds while being CEO of Brynes, a collection of professional services for global redistribution since 1907.