

PAUL AHDAN, Ph. D.

PRESIDENT, RANTRONICS INC., INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS CONSULTANT

Paul Ahdan has over 40 years of international business experience. He has served as president of Rantronics Int'l Ltd., a California-based global procurement firm, since 1990. Mr. Ahdan's career has included international assignments in Europe, Asia and Africa. He has traveled extensively to companies located in Asia, Latin America, Europe, Africa, Australia and North America. Among the firms he has worked for are well-known companies such as Alcatel, PAD, Fairchild, Granger, Commodore Business Machines and Singer Business Machines.

Mr. Ahdan volunteers his time generously and has participated in projects for the IESC (International Executive Service Corporation – a US Government funded body) as a Team Project Leader for the IESC-USAID funded 2001 Privatization of Industry Project in Romania. He was a Grand Juror for Placer County and is currently a business counselor and a faculty member for SCORE, the Service Corps of Retired Executives, a program of the U.S. federal government.

Mr. Ahdan also has experience teaching at the university level. He was an instructor on global marketing and sales management for graduate and post graduate students at the University of Ghent in Belgium. He earned a master's degree in Global Trade in London and went on to complete a doctorate in international business, also in the UK, as well as an engineering degree and another MBA from California. He speaks various languages including a little German and Dutch.

Mr. Ahdan is also a dedicated volunteer on the home front, and has been active in AYSO youth soccer as a coach and the Boy Scouts. He is the proud father of an Eagle Scout who is now an attorney here in Sacramento. Mr. Ahdan resides in Granite Bay with his wife of over 45 years.