

WARREN BERCKMANN, PRINCIPAL

Creative, visionary, globally savvy executive with experience in the for-profit and not-for-profit sectors; establishes vision, develops strategic plans, initiates strategic partnerships, builds effective teams and sound organizational structures; good communication skills with both internal and external audiences; and natural talent as a leader and teacher.

Warren's career spans almost three decades working in an executive and consulting capacity in various industries in the private sector as well as in the not-for-profit sector. Bilingual in French & English, he has conducted business in North America, Europe and Africa.

Warren has an MBA from Indiana University, post-graduate studies in Global Marketing Management from the Wharton School, and post-graduate studies in the Executive Development Program at the University of Chicago's Graduate School of Business. He is also trained as a Project Management Professional (PMP).

"... Warren Berckmann is a very capable and results-oriented executive who has vision. He is a strategic networking expert who can execute a plan with attention to detail. He is a great people person who values the insights of those he works with and those he serves. He will be a tremendous asset to whatever organization can land him next."

--Client Executive Director.